Certain Dri Feet Microsponge Powder ($7.45) is a super-powerful foot powder that absorbs wetness and leaves feet feeling dry and happy, even after dancing around all night.

This Peppermint Foot Therapy Deodorant Stick ($6.79) is meant for men, but the clean scent and foot-pampering formula laced with peppermint oil works wonders for women too, keeping feet softer and odor-free.

And if it's too late to prevent your feet from getting smelly, fix them up with Pedi-Relax Deodorant Spray ($8.55) – it freshens and deodorizes with a mist of essential oils and bacteria-killers.
